COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS

June 16, 1953

Hon. Allen Dulles
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Allen:

I have just received the enclosed memoranda which I thought might be of interest to you. In this particular field, I believe [ ] is well informed and his observations may be useful to compare with your own source.

STAT

It does look to me as if the Russians are playing their part with much more astuteness and subtlety than heretofore. I am very disturbed that the Western countries will fall for this line and will not go forward with the Defense Community, NATO and the other measures designed to increase their strength.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,
